Wed 5/21 Movie - Corner Office

(1 & 7:30 p.m., 2023, 1h 41m, Comedy/Drama)

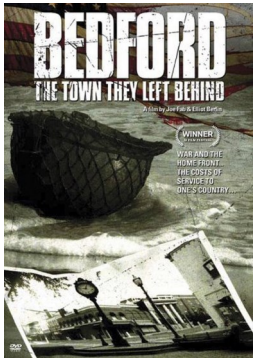

Authority Inc's newest employee, Orson (Jon Hamm), instantly develops a distaste for his office colleagues, offended by such things as their lackadaisical work habits, their sloppy attire, and even the lack of credibility of a young child's drawing depicting the sun on one of their desks. Determined to be "a person to be reckoned with," he prides himself on his work ethic, hewing to a strict hourly schedule of 55 minutes of intense work followed by a five-minute break. It isn't until Orson discovers an empty, elegantly appointed, wood-paneled office that he finds momentary contentment. Retreating there whenever he can, he discovers that it provides an inner peace that enables him to do his best work, resulting in kudos from his boss and the never seen "EVP" upstairs who truly controls things. His newfound status only increases his co-workers' resentment. More problematically, none of them can see the apparently magical office that serves as Orson's refuge.

Thu 5/22 American Airlines Return to Normandy (11 a.m. & 10 p.m.)

American Airlines Return to Normandy: 80th Anniversary of D-Day Memorial Trip. June 6, 2024 was the 80th anniversary of the allied landing on the Normandy Beaches in France, D-Day. Bob and his daughter flew from Dallas to Paris and participated in the various ceremonies surrounding the anniversary. Bob and his daughter provided to the Mund Council a wonderful, uplifting presentation of the highlights of their trip. This is a recording of that presentation.

Fri 5/23 Bedford: The Town They Left Behind (7:30 p.m.)

During World War II, men from all over the United States went into combat, but it was Bedford, Va., that earned D-Day's most chilling distinction: the country's highest losses per capita. Bedford's local National Guard unit was once considered a good way to make a few bucks during the Great Depression. But then the country was drawn into war that same Guard unit was the first to come under withering German fire on Normandy's beaches. This documentary recalls that solemn history but also places it in contemporary context: In 2004, Bedford's National Guard troops were called up for the first time since 1945. They were sent first to Afghanistan and then to Iraq

Sat 5/24 Bedford: The Town They Left Behind (1 & 7:30 p.m.)
